

Point of Impact Tour 2009 – Lyric Sheet

Therefore You (2008) Scepter

Come on, let's get crazy!

No matter what your friends all say, I tell you that there is another way.
Prophets of the damned condemn and want to take you to their darkest sins.
Easy? Not. No.. its free to follow.

There goes all of your sorrows.
Who knows what's in tomorrow.
We sow the things we reap to you!
Therefore you!

Don't have to know the things I say, bout turning darkness into brightest day.
Hell on earth is what you see. There is no cost to try what I believe.
Painful? Yes, so.. its free to follow.

There goes all of your sorrows.
He knows what's in tomorrow.
We sow the things we reap to you!

Therefore, It's up to you man.

Don't need to listen or to even understand.
What can be given I can't lay there in your hands.
I try to tell you but I cannot make you change.
Therefore you must decide if you remain the same.

Are you gonna remain the same?!?!?

I've told you all I'm gonna say so don't forget me on your darkest day.
Therefore you must make your choice. Scream out loud in unity filled voice.
Lets all go together... follow.

There goes all of your sorrows.
You know what's in tomorrow.
We sow the things we reap to you!
Therefore you!
Therefore you!
Therefore you! Come On!
Therefore you!

Burnt Offering
(2008) Scepter

There are things you'll never know.
Pleading sinners tell you so.
Things there you cannot see. Open doors for you and me.
Offering what you can show. Maybe you should let it go.

When you finally see The Way through another burnt offering.
The treasure many never pay through another burnt offering.

(Glad You're Here)

Time goes by another day.
What's in prices we all pay?
Eye for eye or coin for coin? Need not dollars for the morn.
Might as well forget the night. What's wrong or what is right?

When you finally see the way through another burnt offering.
The treasure many never pay through another burnt offering.
Only a few will see the light of another burnt offering.
So feel the flames offer tonight. Yeah.

Another Burnt Offering

Burnt offering is one consumed by fire, ascending to God while being consumed.
Consecration of Aaron, dedication of the temple, Solomon.

When you finally see the way through another burnt offering.
The treasure many never pay through another burnt offering.
Only a few will see the light of another burnt offering.
So feel the flames offer tonight. Yeah.

Another Burnt Offering

Follow In The Moonlight
© 2007 Deftunes Inc.

Living after midnight You dread for another day.
Looking for your answer. You can't seem to find it.
Saving up on the fright. To think of your final day.
It's all in the red light

Oh I've got
Something to say to you.
Something inside you has got to change.

Follow in the moonlight
Don't wait for another day
You will find a way.
Follow in the moonlight
Don't wait till your final day
You will find the way.

I'm turning on your love line. Now what will you do all day?
Show me to Your rainbow. And it never went from black and gray
It sure wasn't a thing to you. And there wasn't any more to say.
So now I'll say to it to You, yeah.

And now it's another night.
There's a place where the pain goes.
And though it's not in sight.
In any single day.

Follow in the moonlight
Don't wait for another day
You might find a way.
Follow in the moonlight
Don't wait till your final day
You will find the way.

Don't follow me please if you think that I am right.
You'll only sell your soul on a lonely Saturday night.
Just do what makes you alive. And let Him take you away.
I'm telling you right now. I'm telling you right now.

Wherever you go. Make sure you know your way.

Follow in the moonlight
Don't wait for another day
You might find a way.
Follow in the moonlight
Don't wait till your final day
You will find the way.

Warship Men

Oh right yeah!

Go! Go!

Thinking about wrong and right.
But you're not deciding tonight.
You wonder if it's in you
To be more of a fighter.
Shielded with the armor.
The enemy will not bring you down.
The servant will fight, in every single day

We're not gonna let them go.
Warriors of the soul.
Get up and go. It's your time! It's your time! Yeah!
Whoa yeah!
Oh it's time to go tonight. On fire... the worship men!

You're going to a lifetime fight.
But you're not gonna die this time.
All they ever want of you.
Is to keep Him in your radar.
Covered in the blood now.
The enemy can't beat you down.
The servant will fight, there is no other way.

We're not gonna let them go.
Warriors of the soul.
Get up and go. It's your time! It's your time! Yeah!
On the first try.

It's time to win the good fight.
Take on the enemy, Go!
Worship men yeah.

(Mix)

Following what is right.
Running all the red lights,
To join the warship men.
Battle has begun.
Fight the enemy as one.
And join the warship men.

Long Before
© 2007 Defftunes Inc.

There's a part of your mind you're scared to show.
Because there are things in life that you don't know.
You can only dream of the things that you could find.
If you could open up your mind.

Everything that you could ever show.
Was predetermined yet you don't even know.
Know the way yet you can't seem to change.
Just let it go and re-arrange. Yeah.

I know it's hard to change when you don't know why.
Before you live you've got to die.

Long before you were you were a child of man. Long before you ever understand.
Long before you knew the things you know. Long before you let Him go. Yeah...

There are things a child can only see.
Open your eyes and try to believe (to believe).
There are things that you may never know.
Don't hold on, just let it go! Yeah!

There are things the blind will never see.
You have the sight when you believe. Yeah!

Long before a plant began to grow. Long before you ever let it show.
Long before you ever understand. Long before you were a man.

Within yourself you are a child conceived.
Only if you would just believe. Yeah!

(Solo)

Open up your heart. Open your mind. Open your life and let Him shine.

Long before you ever understand.
Long before a child ever became a man.
Long before you ever let it show.
Long before you let Him go.
Yeah, long before.
Yeah, long before.
Yeah, long before.
Yeah, long before.

Where Did The Pain Go?
© 2007 Defftunes Inc.

I was left here all alone but there was one thing left to show.
There was pain here left unto me, a soul tie I came to know.
I prayed as a believer. To release all the binds now.
For the enemy to let me go.

They are those who help me walk away.
Through the Word of life, I work to find,
A brand new light, yeah.

Oh my Holy Ghost!
Where did the pain go?
Don't tell me that you don't know.
Where did the pain go?

A family of choice showed me they are the ones who cares.
Showed the reason of a faith wound and my unanswered prayers.
And became a new believer. That leads me into the freedom.
For the enemy to let me go.

They are those who help me walk away.
Through the Word of life, I soon will find,
A brand new light, yeah.

Oh my Holy Ghost!
Where did the pain go?
Don't tell me that you don't know.
Where did the pain go?

The pain I see in your eyes, Is the pain that I felt that night.
And alone you won't win the fight. Oh no
The pain that I feel tonight, I continue on the fight.
We're together here. Together here tonight

Oh my Holy Ghost!
Where did the pain go?
Don't tell me that you don't know.
Where did the pain go?
Oh my Holy Ghost!
Where did the pain go?
I know that I finally know.
Just where the pain goes.

Say Unto You
© 2007 Defftunes Inc

Gotta tell you one thing that is news to you.
I got a crazy feeling you don't know what's true.
Don't know your little story and I don't really care.
Somebody in this world has already been there.

Don't want your little thoughts on what you think is right.
There is only one way, a single truth, one right.
I really hope you listen, I was there back then.
And every day's a battle, fighting all the sin.

All the things that I have left behind.
If you want a life you first have to die.

Open up your mind and you will feel so high.
Just let the feelings come right through, yeah.
Things that you will find right here within your mind
You'll find the truth, I'll say unto you. Yeah.

Catch the hidden message of a phrase that's right.
Don't need to live in darkness to enjoy the night.
Up and on The Road to a new life that's found.
The pleasures are delivered going round and round.

All the things that I have left behind.
If you want a life you first have to die.

Open up your mind and you will feel so high.
Just let the feelings come right through, yeah.
Things that you will find right here within your mind
You'll find the answer, I'll say unto you. Yeah.

Open up your mind and you will feel so high.
Just let the feelings come right through, yeah.
Things that you will find right here within your mind
You'll find the answer, I'll say it to you. Yeah.
Say Unto You, Yeah, x4

Coast To Coast
© 2007 Defftunes Inc

On the east or the west coast.
Or between it's time to take note.
Reigning through the fire.
You can choose, if you're denying.
To get rid all of the violence.
Come on out, no time for silence.
See The One who we know is true.
Not to late to enter in you.

You're alive but you're not feeling.
Because all your feelings once were bad.
You can't follow without seeing.
Seeing things that you have never had.

Give your life powerful Host. You can't see Him but He is the most.
Always in your corner post. He's there from coast to coast.
Yeah

Can't remember where your day goes.
Cause you're married to the shadows.
And you finally hear your name now.
Scared to answer you don't know how.
Well I'll tell you there's an answer.
On your knees you tiny dancer.
Cause you're drowning in the ocean.
I give you the magic potion.

You're alive but you're not dreaming.
Because all your life your dreams went bad.

You can't follow without feeling.
Feeling things that you have never had.

Give your life powerful Host. You can't see Him but it is the most.
Always your corner post. It's there from coast to coast.

(Solo)

Give your life powerful Host. Everywhere the wind blows
Can't see Him but it is the most. He's there from coast to coast.

Everywhere the wind blows. Open up your mind's window.
Not everybody says "No". He's there from coast to coast.

Always Be There
© 2007 Defftunes Inc.

On the planet earth there's things you will find.
Problems are doorways till the end of your time.
Every day's the same, you say you did no wrong.
I know you think that you are always on.
Always on.

Looking back on days when I didn't mind.
Found a new way so I'll not be left behind.

Oh even though you left me, this will always be there.
Remembering when you said to me, "I'll always be there".
Though all the bad things that I do, this will always be there.
Always be there.

Always be there.

I was always thinking things I didn't know weren't right.
Remembering things that you would tell me every night.
There are some things that you may never understand.
But its there for you if you reach out your hand.

On and on and all alone again.
Are the things that you had said.

Oh I know it's on your mind
Oh I know that you will find.
All the promises sent to you.
Oh yeah it's there.

(Solo) Oh yeah, Save me!

It's always there for you, the only thing I say.
Before you found it you could never find your way.
A newborn child you are in every single day.
And there's love until the end of time.
Yes there's love until the end of time.
Always be there.
Always be there

Another way
© 2007 Defftunes Inc.

Say that you're delivered, but insane because you're all alone.
Nothing is forever, when you enter in the doorway.
No hope for a golden kingdom, cause now they will see the things you do.
Neverending, you shall be with me.
Lucky is love that rains on you.

Come see the light that is grace without a fight.
It is there by design now, it's easy to see, an eternity, yeah.
The rest is all a lie.
Oh can't you say the things you hear? See what you say?
Oh listen cause, there's another way, yeah.

Running in a circle, but in pain, you're in the danger zone.
Jumping out a window, you can't exit through the doorway.
No hope for any freedom, they see all the hell that's been through you.
Dreadful darkness is all that you see.
Lucky is love that rains on you.

Come see the light that is grace without a fight.
It is there by design now, it's easy to see, an eternity, yeah.
The rest is all a lie.
Oh can't you say the things you hear? See what you say?
Oh listen cause, there's another way, yeah.

(Solo)

Now you see that His reign's on you.
And the things that you've found are true.
It's a brand new day with another way, another way, yeah!
As you bath in brand new light, that is with you all the time.
Soon you realize, He's the way who helped you run away.
Oh Yeah... Another way.

Final Curtain Call
© 2008 Defftunes Inc.

That time you feel that you were hurting.
And on your knees you found a way.
But you're not sure that it was certain.
And now you feel too tired to pray.

When you feel you don't see the light.
Any way that you can make it feel alive.

Well now you think that you will wait.
You hope to see another day.
And you think that you were right.
A final curtain call, you'll see another light.

Time will tell you that you can't find.
Those things you see inside your mind.
And you'll find that you cannot chase
Success you see in human race.
Light you pick up becomes life.
A velvet picture turns to bright.
Something in them made you change.

Something in them makes you seem to feel the rage.

Yeah!

And now the final curtain's calling.
You get down on your knees and pray.
Hear an answer that is certain.
And really know that you can find a way.
Final Curtain... You can find a way.
Final Curtain... You can find a way
Final Curtain... You can find a way
Final Curtain... You can find a way.

Sinners Day
© 2008 Deftunes Inc.

You think that you may never know.
It's left or right, which way to go.
The tunnels end, you see the day
But in the maze you loose your way.
And you think that it's alright till it's over in the moonlight.
Cause you're feeling wrong with everything you said.
Come On, Get Crazy!

You know I never really like
When you can't even spend the night
If I don't live another day
You still won't see things in my way.
I won't see you again tonight cause it's over in the moonlight.
Cause you know that I can never seem to change.

Guess that it's all done in the moonlight.
Well it's all in a sinner's day.
I'm bringing darkness into your life.
Cause it's all in a sinner's...

Day can become night and night can find the day.
Well I know that I can hear the words you say.
The price of comfort, price of pain to peel away.
The sinner being that I have to rip away.

All in a sinner's day. Come on people! Get crazy!

Well it's over in the moonlight.
Yes it's over in a sinner's day.
Yes it's over now for my life.
Cause it's over in a sinner's day.

Well it's over in the moonlight.
Yes it's over in a sinner's day.
It's over now for my life.
Cause it's over in a sinner's day.

In a sinners day
In a sinners day
In a sinners day
In a sinners day

Salvation
© 2009 Deftunes Inc.

I thought I knew all that was right inside my mind.
And then it all came crashing down before my eyes.
A choice to run or stand and fight the sinful things.
I chose a new life, start again, He is the way.

I know that you know that you can get tired of fighting.
When you fall, give Him all, to understand!

How is your foundation?
Strong or will it blow away?
Do you know salvation?
It's here to stay, it's here to stay!

We found out that our love was blind. Open your eyes.
We turned our way over to Him. Drop your disguise.
Cause when you see He is the way you'll understand.
Your life will lift up and your everything expands.

I know that you know that you can't ignore the moment.
When you try and you die unto His ways.

How is your foundation?
Strong or will it blow away?
Do you know salvation?
It's here to stay, I'm here to say!

How is your foundation?
Strong or will it blow away?
Do you know salvation?
It's here to stay, it's here to stay!

Come on!
(Guitar Solo)

I know that you know that you've got to grab and hold it.
Take His hand, understand He is the King!

Come on people!
Let me hear you!

How is your foundation?
Strong or will it blow away?
Do you know salvation?
It's here to stay, I'm here to say.

How is your foundation?
Strong or will it blow away?
Do you know salvation?
It's here to stay, it's here to stay!
It's here to stay! Salvation!
